ALL DENTAL PRODX ANNOUNCES
NEW QUIKGLAZE™ XL –NOW VALUE PRICED

For Immediate Release: May 18, 2007

Cape May, New Jersey: All Dental PRODX, a 10 year provider of innovative technology and products for dental practitioners, today announces a new 30 ml size and value priced version of their QuikGlaze original, the clear glazing and bonding agent used to create superior esthetics with all temporary materials.

According to Kate Liddle, President and All Dental PRODX founder, "We are delighted to bring this new 30 ml size of a favorite in our product line of multi-functional materials for our practitioners."

QuikGlaze XL is six times the size of our 5 ml product but not sold at six times the price! The product number is 200130 XL and the Suggested Retail Price is $159.95. Quality accessories are included too – durable mixing wells and brushes.

All Dental PRODX, headquartered in Cape May New Jersey, is best known for marketing innovative and efficient products in specific categories of dentistry – impressions, restorative and temporization. Recently, the PRODX Spa segment introduced a new line of clinically based products to enhance the in-office experience and for the consumer market.
